

About The Blog

Launched in 2012 Ohla Living is a personal blog on sharing lifestyle, home inspirations, recipes, travel and family life in between. Mariá inspires others by sharing her experiences as a British expat in Valencia. From giving tips on schooling, Valencian/Spanish culture, and places to visit in the Valencian region and surrounding areas. You will also find lifestyle tips, natural living, home improvement projects and recipes.

With Mariá's background in design, and mixed cultures she integrates this in to her posts and images throughout her blog. Ohla Living offers general tips and first hand experience about what it's like living in this part of the Mediterranean with additional personal touches and a dash of creativity.

About Maria

Web | Graphic Designer | Illustrator

Owner & designer for Ohla Creative and Creative Director for Tucanoo Solutions Ltd. Maria was born in the Philippines and immigrated to the UK when she was 10 years old. She left the UK in 2012 to pursue a dream of living in Valencia with her family. She lives in an idyllic home amongst the orange groves with her son, husband, two cats and a dog. Finally finding happiness in work-life balance and while adjusting to a new culture, and savouring what the Spanish life has to offer.

BRAND PARTNERSHIPS

I love working with brands, here are some list of services I can do for you

LET'S WORK TOGETHER

By working with Ohla Living, you can expect well written and presented articles. You will be working with a professional who specialises in design and who can create content that will engage audiences.

I am interested to hear from UK and European brands especially Spanish companies who would like their products or services noticed through an English speaking audience. I can create detailed posts to maximise your reach, popularity and credibility.

MY SERVICES

Ohla Living Blog delivers rich content, images and graphics for your branding. By working with me, you can easily share your message with my readers. Do you want to introduce a product or service? Make an announcement? Launch a video to stimulate direct reader engagement? I have different options to suit your needs!
